

Interesting facts about the Book of Daniel

- Written 2,548 years ago during the Babylonian and Persian Empires
- Written by Daniel, a Jewish man taken in exile by the Babylonian army
- Full-time statesman and part-time prophet
- Jesus spoke about the Book of Daniel in Matthew 24:15
- Prophet Ezekiel mentions him twice Ezekiel 14:14,20: 28:3

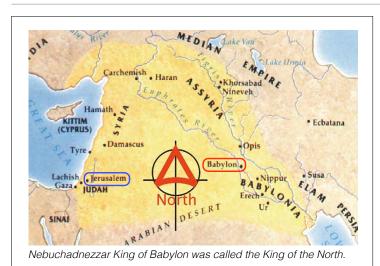

For the Critishen of beast it may increase which that God much seems for accordance. He seed to accordance the set of the consideration for the consideration of the consid
Though Soc has demonstrated his love for His creation, His love was not unconditional. He set boundates and I'll the boundates were granted. There were retinities for the Iraliaguesson, For Issael that accounted in Daired charger 1. (Soc) had consistently through His prophets reminded His people of their boundates, helphighting the fact that they had posterably impost them. The publishment for the cut and they had posterably impost them. The publishment his fact that they had posterably impost them. The publishment had been supported that the major application of the second them not explainty. A throughout years earlier they that make a agreement with God when his broughl then out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual divergant for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by he time of Daniel the rollidorship was fractured. Got that forewarmed Israel, them Justich, He would lake action of they ground his law systems from the midst of the face and the cloud on the mountain, now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, bealsh was lotd 10 third up the Testimory."  [Bas 8:16], i.e. the scand on whith the Law was retined, Pear 119, 1-9. Binding the Testimory suspended the coverant but in the same properly law coverant but in the same and the cloud on the reportably bind the Law tensor, His law suspend the coverant but in the same broads in the same broads. In the same broads in the same broads in the same broads in the same and the Law among His designer. For the obeding was the Law among His designer, For the obeding was the Law among His designer.
Though Soc has demonstrated his love for His creation, His love was not unconditional. He set boundates and I'll the boundates were granted. There were retinities for the Iraliaguesson, For Issael that accounted in Daired charger 1. (Soc) had consistently through His prophets reminded His people of their boundates, helphighting the fact that they had posterably impost them. The publishment for the cut and they had posterably impost them. The publishment his fact that they had posterably impost them. The publishment had been supported that the major application of the second them not explainty. A throughout years earlier they that make a agreement with God when his broughl then out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual divergant for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by he time of Daniel the rollidorship was fractured. Got that forewarmed Israel, them Justich, He would lake action of they ground his law systems from the midst of the face and the cloud on the mountain, now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, bealsh was lotd 10 third up the Testimory."  [Bas 8:16], i.e. the scand on whith the Law was retined, Pear 119, 1-9. Binding the Testimory suspended the coverant but in the same properly law coverant but in the same and the cloud on the reportably bind the Law tensor, His law suspend the coverant but in the same broads in the same broads. In the same broads in the same broads in the same broads in the same and the Law among His designer. For the obeding was the Law among His designer, For the obeding was the Law among His designer.
was not unconstituted. He sait boundaries and II the boundaries were ignored, there were removates for the transportation. To late that occurred in David chapter I, God had consistently limited this propelles intrinside his people of their boundaries, the limited his property of the boundaries, the limited his bound form to provide the post that they had consistently ignored them. The purpose it has bound form upon them, would lead for 70 years, a Ballino limited.  For the Children of Israel it was inconceivable that God would send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier freely had made a agreement with God when he brought them cut of slavery in Egypt, and they redsort in that agreement.  The continued disregard for the law on which the agreement was bead, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was flactured. God had forewarned israel, then Judah. He would take action if they groved the law system from the midst of the limited his provide his law system from the midst of the limited were able to continue the continued of the mountain, now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain, now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain, now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain, now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain, now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a funded year before Caniel, Isaakin was told to bind up the Testimony." It is a funded the coverant of the time the same property in the Law among this beside is 5° for the obedients.	GOD WAS IN CONTROL?
were ignored, there were reminders for the transgression. For Israel that coursel in David replaced 1. Good and consistently through His prochets reminded His people of their boundaries, hebisphing the fact that they hap pretisently ignored them. The judgment He would bring upon them, would bed to 70 years, a Biblical felaime.  For the Children of Israel it was inconceivable that God would send them tole capitally. A nouseard years earlier they had made a general with God when He bronging them out of slavery in Egypt, and five yested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was a segon, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was facilized. God feet forewarded Karel, him should, He would use before Daniel, leak but the continual disregard for the law on which the area and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, isalain was fold to bind up the Testimony; Igia 8 (16) is, the scretce on which the Law was written, IPsa 119; 12(1, Binding the Testimony suspended the coverant until the brings is among the Code world pind the Law. He would suspend the consequent but in the same breath, in the same sentence. He told support the coverant until the brings is analysis. For the obedient, He would disclose is for the decident. He would
For the Children of Israel it was inconceivable that God would income the world bring and the world bring upon them. Would lest for 70 years, a Biblical lifetime.  For the Children of Israel it was inconceivable that God would sent of them to captivity. At thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when he brought them out of stavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God that forewarden Israel, then builds, the would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, issain was told 'to bind up the Testimony,' [Bla 3 16 ], the screen on which the Law was written. [Psa 1119;19] Brinding the Testimony,' suspended the coverant until the briding was transved.  Was God furning His back, was He rejecting His papple Israel.  Was God furning His back, was He rejecting His papple Israel.  Was God furning His back, was He rejecting His papple Israel.  Sold was accounted to the Law among His disclosed: For the obedient. He would in the same breath.
For the Children of Israel it was inconceivable that God would be to 70 years, a Biblical literime.  For the Children of Israel it was inconceivable that God would send them into capiting. All housand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of silvery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The confined diseaged for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarmed Freel, then Johds. He would take action it they ignored this Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had corne.  Nine hundred years after the mountain; now the time had corne.  Nine hundred years after the mountain; now the time had corne.  Only the size of the screen or which the Law was written, [Psa 1191;12]. Binding the Tealmony, suspended the coverant until the brinding was emored.  Was God turning His back, was the rejecting His people Israel.  Was God turning His back, was the rejecting His people Israel.  Soppler Soppler He coverant but in the same popeat, in the same popeath, in the same spenter. He would issiph to "seal" the Law, the would	Israel that occurred in Daniel chapter 1. God had consistently
For the Children of Israel it was inconcellable that God would send then into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forevened Freel, then Juddah, He would lake action if they ignored His Law spiken from the midst of the law and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, tesially was finding the first the first and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, tesially was told 'to bind up the Testimony,' (Res of 15). Danilly the Bestimony, asspended the coverant until the binding was removed.  Wes God bring His bestimony asspended the coverant until the binding was removed.  Wes God bring His bestimony asspended the coverant until the same breeth, in the same sentence. He lold issieh to 'seel the Law among His disciples.' For the obedient, He would signed the Law: He would signed the Law: He would
For the Children of Israel It was inconceivable that God would send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when he brought them out of slavely in Egypt, and they reside in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement.  It is shown that the limit of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah. He would take action if they liproned this Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaah was field "to bind up the Testimony" [Isa 81:6] is, the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:12]. Binding the Testimony suspended the content until the binding was removed.  Was God turning his back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law, He would suspend the coversant but in the same breadth, in the same shorence, His told Islaeh to "seal the Law among His disciples": For the declerent, He would disciples": For the declerent, He would	judgment He would bring upon them, would last for 70 years, a
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would		-
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would		7
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
send them into captivity. A thousand years earlier they had made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119:1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
made a agreement with God when He brought them out of slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony,"  [Isa 8:16,] i.e. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant but the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would Slavery in Egypt, and they rested in that agreement.  The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarned Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8:16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarmed Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaida was told to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16.] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law, He would Isaida to "seal" the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would disciples." For the obedient, He would
was based, meant by the time of Daniel the relationship was fractured. God had forewarmed Israel, then Judah, He would take action if they ignored His Law spoken from the midst of the fire and the cloud on the mountain; now the time had come.  Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaida was told to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16.] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law, He would Isaida to "seal" the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would disciples." For the obedient, He would	The continual disregard for the law on which the agreement
Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16.] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119,1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8,16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written. [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would	•
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would [Isa 8;16,] ie. the scroll on which the Law was written, [Psa 119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would	Nine hundred years after the mountain of God, and a hundred
119;1-2]. Binding the Testimony suspended the covenant until the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would	years before Daniel, Isaiah was told "to bind up the Testimony," the binding was removed.  Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would
Was God turning His back, was He rejecting His people Israel.  God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would God would bind the Law; He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would suspend the covenant but in the same breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would Isaiah to "seal the Law among His disciples." For the obedient, He would	breath, in the same sentence, He told Isaiah to "seal the Law among His *Therefore Who is in control, of the events unfolding for Israel?

Jer 25:8-9 "...thus says the Lord of hosts: 'Because you have not heard My words, behold, I will send and take all the families of the north,' says the Lord, "... and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and will bring them against this land, against its inhabitants, and against these nations all around, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, a hissing, and perpetual desolations...

"Babylon was the most terrible of armies," ... Ezek 32:12

Between Jerusalem and Babylon is, the Arabian Desert.

It is the world's fourth largest desert and an extension of the Sahara desert, ...It's temperatures range from above 50 c to near freezing at night.

As Babylon was east of Jerusalem, why was Nebuchadnezzar and his people labelled as from the north, the north country, or the farthest parts of the north?

Question ... What did God asked of Abram?

Now the Lord had said to Abram: Gen 12:1"Get out of your country, From your family and from your father's house, to a land that I will show you. So Abram departed as the Lord had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy five years old when he departed from Haran.

For Abraham and his descendants, God defined his ancestral land, as the land between the rivers, the Euphrates and Tigris, including Haran, plus Babylon it's capitol, and Ur in the land of the Chaldean's.

The King of the North, the King of Babylon. Carchenish Haran Cyrrus Lachish Jerusalem Cyrrus Damascus Tyre Damascus Dan 1:1 ... In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, (605bc) Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

Jer 25:11-12 ...And this whole land shall be a desolation and an astonishment, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. Then it will come to pass, when seventy years are completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, iniquity,' says the Lord;... 'I will make it a perpetual desolation.'

The difference between Israel's desolation and Babylon's was Israel's would last seventy years whereas Babylon's would be perpetual

In 605 bc, Nebuchadnezzar captures Jerusalem...the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand. Dan 1:2

In captivity God returned the children of Israel, to the ancestral land of Abraham. A land He had deemed unclean, a land He had asked Abram to leave.

Question ... Why do you think that God returned the children of Israel, to the land He had deemed unclean?

Question ...Do you think that God would ask of the children of Israel, the same test He had asked of Abram?

Also ... Jacob, when he fled his father's tent because of his deceit, retraced Abram's journey, to the land between the rivers, and for about the same length of time, 70 years.

Dan 1:3-4 ...Then the king instructed Ashpenaz, the master of his eunuchs, to bring some of the children of Israel and some of the king's descendants and some of the nobles, young men in whom there was no blemish, but good looking, gifted in all wisdom, possessing knowledge and quick to understand, who had ability to serve in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the language and literature of the Chaldeans.

It was a practice of those times to take the most gifted of the captives and train then for service as slaves or vassals.

God told the children of Israel their captivity amid the paganism of Babylon. was for seventy years, (the length of one lifetime) then they would return to their land. They were to live in peace not forsaking Him, their culture or their heritage.

God instructed Israel to:
Jeremiah 29:4-6Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all who were carried away captive, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and dwell in them; plant gardens and eat their fruit.  Take wives and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, so that they may bear sons and daughters—that you may be increased there, and not diminished. And seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to the Lord for it; for in its peace you will have peace.
LANGUAGE The Ancient Hebrew tongue was semitic in origin, as was Akkadian and Aramaic the languages of Babylon.
LITERATURE The literature and learning of Babylon were the sciences of the Chaldeans, the elite from whom came the priests, magicians, astrologers, enchanters, interpreters of dreams omens and divination. The science of Babylon was contrary to God's word and wisdom.
Dan 1:5 the king appointed for them a daily provision of the king's delicacies and of the wine which he drank, and three years of training for them, so that at the end of that time they might serve before the king.  A common belief of the time was,eating at or from the food provided for the King and drinking his wine, was an acceptance that the King and his God, Marduk [Bel] was the ruler and provider of the one who had eaten or drunk.

The Religion of Babylon was "polydemonic," a mixture of magic demons, and multiple gods. In Babylon there were: more than 50 Temples, the most important was the 'Esagila' dedicated to Marduk or Bel, the patron god of Babylon. In addition within the city there were more than 40 cult centres, and 900 chapels. Babylon's most important religious festival at the time of the spring equinox, was the New years day festival of Akitu. It occurred in the month, of Nisanu, and was the time from which a King's reign was counted. The Gods of Babylon The more important god's in the Babylonian Pantheon were his son, Nabu...scribe and herald of the god's Anu...the god of the heavens Sin...the moon god and daughter, Ishtar...the goddess of war and love Adad...god of wind, storms & floods and so on and on..... Dan 1:8... Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's delicacies, nor with the wine which he drank; therefore he requested of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. Daniel and his friends, understood the laws regarding food and worship and they made a decision to remain true to their God given heritage, a decision they did not change throughout their lives. In Babylon an animal to be eaten whether clean or unclean, was offered to the gods as a sacrifice, in that sacrifice it's blood was not drained. For the Hebrew youth the sacrifice and the blood would have been a problem.

Blood Lev 7:27 'Whoever eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people.' for the life is in blood.  Clean and Unclean Lev 11:2 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'These are the animals which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth:'  Wine  Isa 28:7 "priest and the prophet have erred through intoxicating drink, they are swallowed up by wine, they are out of the way through intoxicating drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment."
Dan 1:9Now God had brought Daniel into the favour and goodwill of the chief of the eunuchs.  But the chief of the eunuchs was fearful of how the King would react to Daniel's request.  Dan 1:11So Daniel said to the steward whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, "Please test your servants for ten days, and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink.
Dan 1:15-16at the end of ten days their features appeared better and fatter in flesh than all the young men who ate the portion of the king's delicacies. Thus the steward took away their portion of delicacies and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.  Dan 1:17As for these four young men, God gave them knowledge and skill in all literature and wisdom; and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

Dan 1:1...And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his [Nebuchadnezzar's] hand, Dan 1:17...God gave them knowledge and skill in all literature and wisdom; and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. Prov 16:7 ... When a man's ways please the Lord, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. Dan 1:18 ... Now at the end of the days, when the king said that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them before Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar allocated "...three years of training for them, so that at the end of that time they might serve before the king." Dan 1:19 ... Then the king interviewed them and among them all none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore they served before the king. Most would consider the defeat of Judah as a victory for the Babylonian Gods: Not so, each unfolding event was controlled by the God of Israel. It was He who had prophesied. He who chose Nebuchadnezzar. He who sent Judah into captivity. He who supported Daniel and friends when they decided to be true to their heritage, and it was He who highlighted their superiority by the magnitude of their success over all others, at the end of their training. Dan 1:20 ...in all matters of wisdom and understanding about which the king examined them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his

The magnitude of Daniel and his friends success in assimilating the literature and sciences of Babylon was 10 times better than the best of all who were in the kingdom of Babylon. A level far beyond normal. This chapter began with the defeat of Judah and the apparent success of Babylon. It concluded with the God given, the God ordained triumph of four young men who had chosen to remain loyal to their God and who had rejected the influences of Babylon.

Dan 1:21 ..Thus Daniel continued until the first year of King Cyrus.

This would have been written or added after Daniel had outlived the Babylonian Empire. There is debate on whether the whole book was written then or that this statement was added then. Whichever it was; it was testimony to the power of Daniel's God that Daniel should outlive the first of the four worldly kingdoms that would control God's people until the return of Jesus, [a Stone cut out without hands].

